A New Kids Quest Face!

Aja Tibbs will be joining our staff team in the role of the full-time Kids Quest Director on our Erie campus on August 3. We are very pleased that she's joining us and are looking forward to her contributions to the children and families at Calvary Bible Church as we work to lay down a spiritual foundation that will lead a child into a relationship with Jesus Christ. Aja is trained and has worked successfully as a city planner for the city of Thornton and she'll use her planning, project and people skills to help guide our ministry to children.

Aja and her husband Brian have been married for 6 years, have 2 dogs and have both been involved with Calvary for several years. Aja has worked in Kids Quest in a volunteer capacity and Brian is a regular drummer on the worship team. Aja loves camping, animals, children, dancing, playing the piano and scrapbooking.

If you're a part of the Erie campus, please give Aja a high-five and a hug. She's making a bold move to respond to this opportunity and be a part of the work that God is doing at Calvary.

After the service in Erie on August 7 we'll honor Chris Kirby for her 4 years of serving as the Erie Kids Quest Director. Stop by and give Chris a high-five and a hug and tell her, "Well done, Chris!"

Kids Quest Core Value – Teaching the Bible Creatively

The biblical message is so powerful, exciting and effective—the same yesterday, today, and forever. To keep pace with the various learning styles of children today, we vary how we communicate our lessons each week; and, in order to teach in a way that's relevant to our kids, we need to use up-to-date and engaging methods of presentation. Our goal is for children to become so fascinated with the Bible stories that they want to learn more.

We teach the Bible lesson creatively through fun drama sketches, video clips, creative storytelling, contemporary music, and other creative teaching methods. We use surprises, games, and fun activities and vary them from week to week. We want our children to keep coming back for more. Since we have the most incredible message to tell about the AWESOME God of the universe, we can't allow Kids Quest to be boring! We must teach the message of God's Word creatively.

Celebration Sunday is Coming August 28!

The Boulder and Erie Campuses will come together at 10:00 a.m. on the front lawn of the Boulder Campus to celebrate all that God has done for us. Afterward we will enjoy lunch and fun activities for the kids.

Kids Quest – Fall Teams Forming Now

Right now we need to load our Kids Quest teams with fun-loving and Jesus-loving people who would love to be a part of the Kids Quest team to teach kids about Jesus using the Bible. Are you caring? Creative? Artistic? Dramatic? Organized? Do you love kids? Want to work with a team of other people? Would you like to be a part in God's work to teach children about the gospel of the glory of Jesus Christ? These are all types of people we use and need on our Kids Quest teams.

Think about how you might be involved. Most roles take less than an hour preparation during the week and hour and a half on Sunday and we have support roles that don't involve Sunday time. Are you a good painter? We can use you. Are you a good storyteller? We can use you. Do you like to sing and move when you worship? We can use you. Do you love the idea of building relationships with children while you teach and play with them? We can use you, too. Are you a fan of fun and creative crafts that help make the Bible lesson stick in the minds of children? We have a spot for you and we'll help you be successful.

Pray about how you can use your skills on Calvary's team to love, teach and reach children with the good news of Jesus Christ. Contact us to let us know you're interested and we'll talk with you about the different roles. We can definitely use your talent and skills. Now's the time! For interest in serving on either campus, contact John Mullis, Kids Quest Director, at jmullis@calvarybible.com or 303-442-3484.
