And the LORD said, “I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt, and have given heed to their cry because of their taskmasters, for I am aware of their sufferings. So I have come down to deliver them.”

Exodus 3:7, 8

LifeGroup Questions:

1. Take some time to share a spiritual turning point in your life? How was this experience like a burning bush experience?
2. What might you have to do in order to put yourself in the path of hearing from God?
3. Finish this sentence: “When God draws near, He . . . . .” (re-read Exodus 3:7, 8; Psalm 34:18; Hebrews 4:16)
4. Meditate on 1 Peter 5:6, 7. Do you think of God as coming near to gently help, or to sternly judge? Why?
5. Close your time by reflecting on James 4:6-10.
DRAW NEAR!!
