

Predictions

December 28, 2008
Pastor Adrian Boykin

*My soul finds rest in God alone;
my salvation comes from him.
He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my fortress, I will never be shaken.*

Psalm 62:1-2

LifeGroup Questions:

1. What is one thing you are tempted to take refuge in during times of heartache?
2. In 2009, what practices will you implement to help you take refuge in God during those times? In other words, how will you move closer, rather than further from God in the coming year?
3. Name one or two attributes of God that you most need today? Be encouraged, that attribute will not change in 2009! (Read: Exodus 34:1-7; Numbers 23:19; Isaiah 54:10).
4. Spend some time praying for your group's individual and corporate spiritual growth in the coming year.

Predictions

December 28, 2008
Pastor Adrian Boykin

*My soul finds rest in God alone;
my salvation comes from him.
He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my fortress, I will never be shaken.*

Psalm 62:1-2

LifeGroup Questions:

1. What is one thing you are tempted to take refuge in during times of heartache?
2. In 2009, what practices will you implement to help you take refuge in God during those times? In other words, how will you move closer, rather than further from God in the coming year?
3. Name one or two attributes of God that you most need today? Be encouraged, that attribute will not change in 2009! (Read: Exodus 34:1-7; Numbers 23:19; Isaiah 54:10).
4. Spend some time praying for your group's individual and corporate spiritual growth in the coming year.