

Co-Laborers With God

1 Corinthians 3:11

Pastor Adrian Boykin

March 26, 2006

*No one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.
1 Corinthians 3:11*

Review: Factions in the Corinthian Church

- a. Paul's Pals
 - b. Apollo's Army
 - c. Cephas' Select Elect
 - d. Christ's Crowd
1. Co-laborers choose to exalt God rather than people, and they choose to encourage rather than quarrel and gossip.

2. Co-laborers with God know their role, and they fulfill it with humility and gratitude.

3. Co-laborers know the foundation...and they know they ain't it

4. In one sense, co laborers appear to be nothing, yet they have everything.

For your LIFEGROUP:

1. Share a time when you were the subject of gossip? What were the effects and how did you work through it?
2. Where is your unique realm of influence? In that realm, who might God desire you to positively influence?
3. What is one "building tool" God has given you for this realm of influence?
4. Pray for unity within your LIFEGROUP and all of Calvary Bible Church.

